Do you knit or crochet? Make an afghan for a wounded vet iPod for Wounded Vets, an organization out of Wilmington MA, is working with the Norfolk County Veterans Services Advocate on a K-12 student letter-writing campaign for wounded vets at the Walter Reed National Military Medical Center in Washington DC.

Along with the letters, we would like to collect hand-made afghans for wounded vets including amputees. RSVP volunteers are encouraged to knit an afghan suitable for a male or female veteran to drop off at RSVP office or call us to pick up afghans at their volunteer site. Afghans will be delivered to the Medical Center in October and December.

Norfolk County Probate Court volunteers, Marcia Cibotti and Marilynn Miller work alongside staff members Barbara Barrett and Claudine Bala

Did you know?

RSVP offers volunteer accident, liability, and excess auto liability insurance for all active members.

- If you are injured while on your way to or from your volunteer site, or while at your volunteer site, RSVP will cover up to $50,000 of accident-related medical expenses. If you already have health insurance, this coverage will pay your deductibles, co-pays, and out-of-network bills.
- If you are responsible for injury or property damage while driving, RSVP covers up to $500,000 in addition to your own auto insurance coverage. It is important that you have a valid, unexpired license and registration, and that you carry state-minimum required auto liability insurance to receive this additional coverage. Please check your license expiration date and let us know when you renew it – MA no longer sends notices of expiring licenses or registration.
- If you are responsible for injury or property damage while you are not driving, RSVP carries volunteer liability insurance up to $3,000,000 per incident. Whether you are found at-fault or not, please contact us at 781-329-5728 as soon as possible after an accident to meet claim deadlines and to learn which coverage might be available to you.

Thank you RSVP volunteers!

National Volunteer Week is April 6-12, 2014.

On behalf of the Norfolk County Commissioners, the national Senior Corps and all of the people you have impacted in the past year, we would like to thank you for supporting your community through volunteerism!

From January – December last year, RSVP volunteers served 38,000 hours in Norfolk County. The time you've given to nonprofit agencies and schools is valued at over $1.05 million (Independent Sector).

In the tradition of service, we have organized opportunities for volunteers to celebrate together and to support military families with 99 Restaurants Dining for a Cause. Cut out the voucher below and bring it with you to 99 Restaurants in Franklin, Canton, Walpole, or Quincy on Thursday April 10.

Enjoy dinner with friends and fellow volunteers, and 15% of your check will be donated to the National Military Families Association
